

BLIND GIRL

J. Emmert, H.J. Kuhr (2000)

Long blonde hair, flowing in the wind Clear blue eyes, that could tell you so much A warm and friendly voice is saying hello Endless long legs are taking every step

She's the prettiest girl in street, but she can't see

chorus:

'cause she's a blind girl can't know how beautiful her hair is
'cause she's a blind girl
won't know how beautiful she is

Springtime has come, flowers everywhere Mother duck is leading seven little ones Couples in the park, walking hand in hand There's a boy, who is looking after her

Is there a chance, they will meet, but she can't see

chorus:

can't know how beautiful her face is
'cause she's a blind girl
won't know how beautiful she is

final chorus:

'cause she's a blind girl
can't know how beautiful the world is
'cause she's a blind girl
won't know how beautiful it is

'cause she's a blind girl
can't know how beautiful the world is
'cause she's a blind girl
won't know how beautiful it is

'cause she's a blind girl
can't know how beautiful the world is
'cause she's a blind girl
won't know how beautiful it is
