

PARTLY THE SAME WAY

J. Emmert, H.J. Kuhr, A. Orosz (2000)

When they were children and young
They played together in the ground
They screamed and laughed very loud
And they were friends
Her mother moved to another town
She took her girl and went away
Leaving John very sadly behind

Chorus:

But for a time in life
They went partly the same way

There was a breath-taking girl
With brown hair and high heels
He would have done everything
To be together with her
For a time they were friends
But she loved someone else
Leaving John unlucky behind

Chorus:

But for a time in life
They went partly the same way

Life has always some change
Just coming and going
Like that grey winter day
When his dad went forever away
And another dark day
When his wife said good-bye
Leaving him and his son behind

Chorus:

But for a time in life
They went partly the same way

He had married again
A happy time with his wife
They had twenty-one years
Oh, what a wonderful time
Having still so many plans
When he suddenly died
Leaving her with her tears behind

Chorus:

But for a time in life
They went partly the same way
