

THEY DON'T CARE

H.J.Kuhr, J.Emmert (1998)

This world is going mad,
can't stop it, feel so sad.
Why - do - we - all together keep things bad?

We try at night and day
and partly find a way,
al - though - we - do
behave like birds of prey.

Home must be everywhere
where living is quite fair.
Watch - feel - move - talk -
but really they don't care.
